BLAINE TO SUMNER.

Washington, August 2.—The following letter was handed to Senator Sumner to-day:

AUGUSTA, ME., July 31, 1872.

HON. CHARLES SUMNER, U. S. Senator:

Dear Sir—Your letter published in the papers of this morning, will create profound pain and regret among your former political friends throughout New England. Your power to injure Gen. Grant was exhausted in your remarkable speech in the senate. Your power to injure yourself was not fully exercised until you announced your alliance with the Southern secessionists in their efforts to destroy the republican party of the nation.

I have but recently read with much interest the circumstantial and minute account given by you in the forth volume of your works of the manner in which you were struck down in the senate chamber in 1856 for defending the rights of the negro. The democratic party throughout the south, and according to your own showing, to some extent in the north also, approved of that assault upon you. Mr Toombs of Georgia openly announced his approval of it in the senate, and Jefferson Davis, four months after its occurrence, wrote a letter to South Carolina in fulsome eulogy of Brooks for having so nearly taken your life. It is safe to say that every man in the south who rejoiced over the attempt to murder you, was afterwards found in the rebel conspiracy to murder the the nation. It is still safer to say that every one of them who survives is to day your fellow laborer in the support of Horace Greeley. In 1856 he would, indeed, have been a rash prophet who predicted your fast alliance sixteen years after with Messrs. Toombs and Davis in their efforts to reinstate their own party in power.

In all the startling mutations of American politics, nothing so marvelous has ever occured in the fellowship of Robt. Toombs, and Jefferson Davis, and Chas. Sumner, in a joint effort to drive the republican party from power and hand over the government to the practical control of those who so recently sought to destroy it. It is of no avail for you to take refuge behind the republican record of Horace Greeley. Conceding for the sake of an argument, as I do not in fact believe, that Horace Greeley would remain firm in his republican principles, he would be powerless against the congress that would come into power with him, in the event of his election. We have had a recent striking illustration in the case of Andrew Johnson, of the inability of the president to enforce a policy or even a measure against the will of congress. What more power would there be in Horace Greeley to enforce the republican policy against a democratic congress, then there was in Andrew Johnson to enforce a democratic policy against a republican congress; and besides, Horace Greeley has already in his letter of acceptance taken ground practically against the republican doctrines so often enforced by yourself of the duty of the national government to secure the rights of every citizen, to the profection of life, person and property.

In Mr. Greeley's letter accepting the Cincinnati nomination, he pleases every Ku Klux villain in the south by repeating democratic cant about local self government, and inveighing in good rebel parlance against centralization, and finally declaring that there shall be no federal supervision of the internal policy of the several states and municipalities, but that each shall be left free to enforce the rights and promote the well being of its inhabitants by such means as the judgment of its own people shall present. The meaning of all this, in plain English, is that no matter how the colored citizens of the south may be abused, wronged and oppressed, congress shall not interfere for the protection, but leave them to the tender mercies of local self-government, administered by white rebels. Do you, as a friend of the colored people, approve of this position of Mr. Greeley?

You can't forget, Mr. Sumner, how often during the late session of congress you conferred with me in regard to the possibility of having your civil rights bill passed by the House. It was introduced by your personal friend, Mr. Hooper, and nothing prevented its passage by the House except the rancorous and factious hostility of the democratic members. If I have correctly examined the Globe, the democratic members, on seventeen different occasions, resisted the passage of the civil rights bill by parliamentary process known as filibustering. They would not even allow it to come to a vote. Two intelligent colored members from South Carolina, Elliott and Rainey, begged the democratic side of the house to merely allow the civil rights bill to be voted on, and they were answered with a denial so absolute, that it amounted to scornful jeers at the rights of colored men. Now you lend your voice and influence to the re-election of those democratic members, who are co-operating with you in support of Mr. Greeley. So you know, Mr. Sumner, and will you not as a candid man acknowledge, that with these men in power in congress, rights of the colored men are absolutely sacrificed, so far as those rights depend on federal legislation. Still further, the rights of colored men in this country are secured, if secured at all, by three great constitutional amendments, the 13th 14th and 15th, so give these amendments full scope and effect, and legislation by congress is imperatively required, as you so often and so eloquently demonstrated, but the democratic party are on record in the most conspicuous manner against any legislation on the subject. It was only in the month of February last that my colleague, Mr. Peters, offered a resolution in the House of Representatives affirming the validity of constitutional amendments and of such reasonable legislation of Congress as may be necessary to make them in their letter and spirit most effectual. This resolution, very mild and guarded, as you will see, was adopted by 124 yeas to 58 nays. Only eight of the yeas were democratic, all nays were democrats.

The resolution of Mr. Peters was followed a week later by one offered by Mr. Stevenson, of Ohio, as follows:

Resloved, That we recognize as valid and binding all existing laws passed by congress for the enforcement of the 13th, 14th and 15th amendments to the constitution of the United States, and for the protection of citizens in their rights under the constitution as amended.

On vote upon this resolution there were 107 yeas, to 65 nays. All yeas were republicans, and they are now unanimous in the support of General Grant. All the nays were democrats, who are now equally unanimous in support of Mr. Greeley.

It is idle to affirm, as some democrats did in a resolution offered by Mr. Brooks of New York, that these amendments are valid parts of the constitution so long as the same men on the same day vote that the provisions of those amendments should not be enforced by congressional legislation Amendments are but sounding brass and tinkling cymbals to the colored man until congress makes them effective and practical. Nay more, if the rights of the colored man are to be left to the legislation of the southern states without congressional intervention, he would under a democratic administration be deprived of the right of suffrage in less than two years, and he would be very lucky if he escaped the same form of chattel slavery or bondage, and in proof of this danger I might quote volumes of wisdom and warning from the speeches of Charles Sumner. When, therefore, you point out to the colored man that his rights will be safe in the hands of the democratic party, you dellude and mislead them. I do not say wilfully, but none the less really—a small handful of republicans compared with the whole mass who unite with yourself and Mr. Greeley in going over to the democratic party cannot leaven that lump of political unsoundness, even if you preserve your own original principles, in the contact. The administration of Mr. Greeley, therefore should he be elected, would be in whole and in detail a democratic administration, and you would be compelled to go with the current or repent and turn back when too late to mend the evil you had done. Your argument that Horace Greeley don't become a democrat by receiving democratic votes illustrating it by an analogy by your own election to the senate, is hardly a pertifient point. It is not what Mr. Greeley will become personally, but what will be the complexion of the great legislative branch of the government with all its vast and controlling power. You know very well, Mr. Sumner, that if Mr. Greeley is elected, the present congress is handed over to the control of a party of men who have persistently denied the rights of the black man. What course you will pursue towards the colored man is of small consequence after you have transferred the power of the government to his enemy. The colored men of this country are not, as a class, enlightened, but they have wonderful instincts, and when they read your letter, they will know that at a great crisis in their fate you deserted them! Charles Sumner co-operating with Jefferson Davis is not the same Charles Sumner they have hitherto idolized, any more than Horace Greeley cheered to the echo in Tammany Hall, is the same Horace Greeley whom the republicans have hitherto trusted.

The black man of this country will never be ungrateful for what you have done for them, in the past, nor in the bitterness their hearts will they ever forget that heated and blinded by your hatred of one man, you turned your back on the millions, whom in past years you have stood as a spirit and bulwark of defense.

Very respectfully your obedient servant,
JAMES G. BLAINE.

The assertion that a lady puts the essence, nay, the very purpose and import of her letter in the postscript, has had many an ingenious but invented illustration. One of the best is that of a young lady in China to her friends at home; viz: "P. S.—You will see by the signature that I am married."

Irony—To ask a hardware man the price of castile soap.

Tobacco is a filthy weed.

Col. E. C. Boudinot made a speech the other day to a large crowd of Cherokees, Missourians and Arkansans near Honey Creek, in the Cherokee nation. He declared himself in favor of a territorial government for the Indian country, and predicted the passage of the bill now before congress to organize the territory of Oklahoma. The following official statistics, which he has collated and gave to his audience, may prove interesting to our readers:

Number of Indian reservations in the United States	86
Number of Indians, excluding Alaska	235,647
Number of Indians in Indian Territory	59,744
Number of Indians outside—all savages	177,103
Average number acres for each Indian in Indian Territory	800
Average number acres for each Indians outside Indian Territory	575

The Indians in the Indian Territory, or Oklahoma, are nearly all civilized, and fit for American citizenship. There are ninety-one Indian tribes or bands in the United States, twenty of which only are in the Indian Territory. Col. Boudinot said of the 58,000 inhabitants of the Indian Territory, 13,000 were negroes; 1,500 were white men citizens by marriage; 15,000 could speak and write the English language; and in a year 3,000 white men, connected with the railroads, would have a right to remain in Indian Territory leaving but a small minority of ignorant Indians.

NOONDAY IN THE TROPICS.

We ascended the estero with a fair but gentle breeze; sometimes narrowing like a river, and then widening into lakes, all fringed to the water's edge with the dense evergreen mangroves, sprinkled with beautiful acacias upon higher land, the foot-hills in the background gradually rising until they faded into the distant blue of the Sierra Madre. The white herons, and others of the family, together with numerous other water fowls, standing upon the mud banks and shallows gave to the picture an aspect of repose and sweetness not easily described We passed a small village of native huts, where the wood choppers and charcoal burners live, who furnish Mazatlan with those articles of consumption. At mid-day we found ourselves in narrow channels, surrounded by the lismal swamps of mangroves and impenetrable brakes. Huge bunches of oysters were growing upon the roots of the mangrove. Occasionally we saw, wading in the shallow water, or perched upon a dry branch the great ibis, and the roscate spoon-bill; and in the darker recesses sat the yellow crowned night heron. Anon we glide quietly into some shady arm of the estero narrower than the rest; and here the huge branches of the great trees, peculiar to these forests, overreach the water, protecting us from the vertical rays of the sun. How refreshing and how silent is nature here! It is noonday in the tropics, and all living creatures are taking a siesta. No object is seen moving, save the water plants, that travel back and forth with the tidal current. The eye endeavors to penetrate the woods on either side for the lurking cougar or sneaking wild cat. A huge alligator lay stretched upon the bank, and we gave him a charge of our heaviest shot, only to see him plunge into the water but little harmed. But the report of our gun awakened many echoes mingled with the blowing of alligators, the screams of water birds, the cackling of the cha-cha-las, the cap cap ke-e-op of the little green heron, the hoarse cries of the snake bird, and the dull quock-quock of the boat-bill night heron.—Overland Monthly.

DON'T BE TOO SENSITIVE.

Here is a short article which we find floating around on the unknown sea of journalism that many men should paste in their hats and ladies in their bonnets, if room can be found on the little duck of a thing. These people liable to quick emotions with sense, but not reason, showing their nature in their countenance, and often marring repose and friendship by unwarranted suspicion, are found in all our cities. Let them read and profit by this:

"There are some people, yes, many people, always looking out for slight. They cannot carry on the daily intercourse of the family without some offense is designated. They are as touchy as hair triggers. If they meet an acquaintance on the street who happens to be pre-occupied with business, they attribute his abstraction in some mode personal to themselves, and take umbrage accordingly. They lay on others the fact of their irritability: A fit of indigestion makes them see impertinence in every one they come in contact with. Innocent persons, who never dreamed of giving offense, are astonished to find some unfortunate word or momentary taciturnity mistaken for an insult. To say the least the habit is unfortunate. It is far wiser to take the more charitable view of our fellow beings, and not suppose a slight is intended unless the neglect is open and direct. After all, too, life takes its hues in a great degree from the color of our mind. If we are frank and generous, the world treats us kindly. If on the other hand, we are suspicious, men learn to be cold and cautious to us. Let a person get the reputation of being touchy, and everybody is under more or less constraint, and in this way the chance for an imaginary offense is vastly increased."

MAN'S AGE

Professor Faraday adopts Flourin's physiological theory that the age of man is one hundred years. The duration of life he believes to be measured by the time of growth. When once the bones and epiphyses are united, the body grows no more and it is at twenty years this union is effected in man.

In the camel it takes place at eight, in the horse at five, in the lion at four, in the dog at two, in the rabbit at one. The natural termination of life is five removes from those several points. Man being twenty years in growing, lives five times twenty years, that is to say one hundred years; the camel is eight years in growing, and lives forty years; the horse is five years in growing and lives twenty-five years, and so with other animals.

The man who does not die with disease lives from eighty to one hundred years. Providence has given a man a century of life, but he does not attain it because he inherits disease, eats unwholesome food, gives license to his passions, and permits vexation to disturb his healthy equipoise; he does not die, he kills himself.

The professor divides life into two equal halves—growth and decline, and these into infancy, youth, virility and age. Infancy extends to the twentieth year, youth to the fiftieth, because it is during this period that the tissues become firm; virility from fifty to seventy-five, during which the organism remains complete; and at seventy-five old age commences; to last a long or short time, as the diminution of reserve forces is hastened or retarded.

HOW DRINKING CAUSES APOPLEXY.

It is the essential nature of all wines and spirits to send an increased amount of blood to the brain. The first effect of taking a glass of wine or stronger form of alcohol, is to send the blood there faster than common, hence the circulation that gives the red face. It increases the activity of the brain, and it works faster, and so does the tongue. but as the blood goes to the brain faster than common, it returns faster, and no special permanent harm results. But suppose a man keeps on drinking, the blood is sent to the brain so fast, in such large quantities, that in order to make room for it the arteries have to enlarge themselves; they increase in size, and in so doing they press against the more yielding, flaccid veins which carry the blood out of the brain and thus diminish their size, their pores; the result is that the blood is not only carried to the arteries of the brain faster than is natural or healthful or natural, but it is prevented from leaving it as fast as usual; hence, a double set of causes of death are set in operation. Hence a man may drink enough of brandy or other spirits in a few hours, or even minutes, to bring on a fatal attack of apoplexy. This is literally being dead drunk.—Dr. Hall.

COMMON SENSE.

A Cincinnati paper timely remarks that "if the money which is annually contributed by the mechanics of the Northern states to the support of trades' unions, instead of being applied to promote discontent among the workmen at home, was devoted to assist such of their number as are desirous of securing a homestead for themselves, and an enlarged sphere of action for their children in a new country, but have not the means of their own to accomplish this, then would they not be doing a work which would benefit them as a class, but they would secure the sympathy of the great mass of people who believe in the largest freedom for the mechanic and laborer—a freedom which is incompatible with the tyranny to which they submit willingly in the trades' unions, and from which they would, to a man revolt if it was attempted to be exercised by government." Why, we ask, should any man with pluck and enterprise remain under the tyranny of trades' unions when the way is open for him to apply his energies in a way which is sure to meet a generous reward?

WILL IT PAY?—The annual cost of luxuries in the United States:

Artificial Flowers	$ 2,000,000
Tea	20,000, 00
Coffee	350,000,000
Tobacco	1,600,00 ,000
Alcohol
Total	$2,00 ,000,000

This amount would endow eight thousand colleges with a quarter of a million each, or pay the wages of a hundred thousand soldiers for one hundred years (at $16 per month). How much will our luxuries cost the nation during the next hundred years?

REMEDY FOR NERVOUS HEADACHE.—Take a dessert spoonful of common soda, such as is used in making bread, and dissolve it thoroughly in a quart of cold water; with this thoroughly shampoo the head for five minutes, scratching the head and the back of the neck well with the finger nails; then rinse the head with clean cold water.

Liverpool has long been regarded as the greatest drunkard manufacturing city in the world, in proportion to population and the British authorities have recently ordered the trial of a new remedy for the evil. The plan was suggested by Mr. Gladstone, and it was to publish the names of those who were seen in public drunk. Every Monday morning a list of the public drunkards is published in all the daily papers, giving the names and occupations of the transgressors in full. This very conspicuous proclamation of their disgrace seems to have done more good than any measure yet devised, for the weekly cases have fallen off one third, and arrests for other crimes in the same proportion. It is a singular means, but if it will deter men from getting drunk, we do not know why it would not be an easy and practical remedy.

An English physician, with a desire to be of benefit to the rising generation, has published some interesting facts regarding the effects of tobacco smoking upon boys. Of thirty-eight boys under fifteen years of age, whom he knew to be smokers, he discovered twenty-seven injurious traces of the habit. Twenty-two had disorders of the circulation and digestion, palpitation of the heart, and a more or less taste for strong drink. Twelve were troubled with hemorrhage at the nose, and an equal number had slight ulceration of the mucous membrane of the mouth. These symptoms were all mitigated and in some cases eradicated by a discontinuance of the habit of smoking. Although all were treated for the above named disorders, only those were cured who abandoned the habit. Persons who have the care of boys will do well to keep these statements, made on the authority of the British Medical Journal, well in mind.

Many persons are liable to extreme suffering from felons on the finger. The following prescription is recommended as a cure for the distressing ailment: Take common rock salt, such as is used for salting down beef or pork, dry in the oven, then pound it fine and mix with spirits of turpentine in equal parts. Put it on a rag and wrap around the part affected, and as it gets dry put on some more, and in twenty-four hours you are cured—the felon is dead.

It may not be known to farmers in general, that it is a common practice in some parts of the country to turn sheep into the potato field, for the purpose of eating down weeds. The sheep will not touch the potato vine. This pasturing with sheep is advantageous, when the crop is a late planted one, so that the hoeing cannot be completed until after haying or harvesting is finished. Early planted crops, the cultivation of which is completed in the early part of the summer, frequently become grassy and weedy before the time of digging, when the size of the tops precludes cultivation. In this stage sheep are economical weeders.

The American Agriculturist gives the number of kernels in a bushel of wheat as 660,000; equally spread over an acre of ground this would make the kernels lie a little over three inches from each other, or give about ten square inches to each kernel.

A bevy of ladies, while crossing Mill Creek, at Salem, Cal., thought they observed a goose swimming in the creek, and began pelting it with stones, when they were greatly astonished by hearing the aforesaid goose exclaim: "Why can't you let a fellow alone? I ain't botherin' you folks any."

A Quaker gentleman, riding in a carriage with a fashionable lady, decked with a profusion of jewelry, heard her complain of the cold. Shivering in her lace bonnet and shawl as light as cobwed, she exclaimed: "What shall I do to get warm?" "I really don't know," replied the Quaker solemnly, "unless thee put on another brestpin!"

The Mormons tell a good story of Brigham Young. Among the applicants for the special priviledge of taking a second wife, there came, one day, a brother of a very doubtful character, when something like the following dialogue ensued:

"So you want another wife, do you?"

"Yes, if you please, brother Brigham."

"Well, the short of the matter is, that you can't have one."

"Why can't I have one as well as the other saints?"

"So you want to know the whole story do you?"

"Yes; I should like to know why I can't have more than one wife, as well as the rest of 'em?"

"Well, you shall know, then, in short order. I want your race to run out."

"Now, gentlemen," said Sheridan to his guests, as the ladies left the room "let us understand each other. Are we to drink like men or beasts?"

Somewhat indignantly, the guests exclaimed:

"Like men, of course."

"Then," he replied, "we are going to get jolly drunk, for brutes never drink more than they want."

"La Me!" sighed Mrs Partington, "here I have been suffering the bigamies of death for three mortal weeks. First I was seized with a bleeding phrenology in the left hampshire of the brain, which was exceeded by a stoppage of the ventilator of the heart. This gave me an inflamation in the borax, and now I'm sick with the chloroform morbus. There is no bleeding like that of health particularly when you're ill."

Van Trump, a leading democratic congressman of Ohio, who was a candidate for renomination, was defeated at Lancaster the other day by Jewett on the one hundred and seventh ballot. Delegates were pretty well warmed up toward the last, and when the result was announced, after the protracted struggle, general rejoicing was indulged in freely. The democracy will miss Van Trump, for he is one of the big guns of the party. There are some intimations of cheating, but as the whole thing was managed by the Greeleyerats this is hardly possible.

It is intimated in late numbers of the Tribune, since North Carolina has gone in favor of the republicans, that this result was brought about by cheating. As that paper is now allied with a party which it vociferously urged, in 1868, cheated Grant out of the vote of New York, perhaps it would be well to look after its new made friends in North Carolina, and find out whether they have not been practicing Tam many tactics there. Because a party is beaten to cry out fraud, without proof, is a little suspicious that all is not right at home.

The Mansfield Herald says a snake twenty feet long was killed near Loudenville a few days ago.

Georgia is a democratic (now Greeley) state, and is taking steps to repudiate a debt of one million dollars. Such a party should have a special bankrupt law to go by.

New and rich gold mines are said to be now opening in California. Claims that were idle for years are found to be rich in metal.

Gen. Burnside said in a speech the other evening that our revolutionary fathers were very particular to not put tories in places of trust, and thinks moderns may imitate their example with safety in not trusting rebels too much.

Henry Wilson, republican candidate for vice president, spoke to the people at Ft Wayne last Saturday.

John R. Royser was the successful bidder for building the new county jail—for $34,157.77. Iron work was taken by M. Clements of Cincinnati, at $28,785. Altogether $69,942.

Richard Brown, Esq., who was nominated by the Greeleyerats at Alliance on the 31st ult, has signified his acceptance of the position in a brief note to the committee.

Blanton Duncan, chairman of the national executive committee of straight democrats, has issued a call to all who are of the true faith to meet in convention at Louisville, Sept 3, and they are responding to this call in many places.

Judge Davis, who was nominated in April or May last by the working men's party, at Columbus, for the presidency, has declined the honor, and the party is preparing to co-operate with the straight democrats at Louisville on the 3d of Sept.

A late number of Pomeroy's Democrat gives a long list of leading democrats who at first surrendered to the Greeley movement but have since came out and repudiated the step. They go for Louisville.

With all the coaxing and wheedling of the Greeleyerats they can't secure the colored vote. The negroes see that whoever is not republican is democrat—he that is not for us is against us—so they go in a body for Grant. Their aggregate vote is said to reach 300,000, enough to help make and unmake a president.

At Cleveland they had a monster republican jollification, on Satuaday evening, over the North Carolina election. Some 5,000 or 6,000 people were in attendance—processions, music, speeches and enthusiasm generally characterized the doings of the evening. It was a very different affair from that of the Greeleyerat abortion which took place just a week previous, in honor of the then claimed Greeleyerat victory. That was as tame as Mary's little lamb.

An unflinching democrat of this place says he can't see the hang of the thing. Months ago in North Carolina the democrats nominated a regular party ticket, but when the election was over the short was raised that it was a Greeleyerat victory, and when the authentic report came it turns out to be a Greeleyerat defeat. The gentleman referred to is a shrewd politician; but these mysteries are beyond his comprehension.

A Turkish village was destroyed by fire on the 8th inst, by which 1000 families are rendered homeless.

On the 17th of September the surviving soldiers of southern prison pens, such as Libby, Anderson and other like places, are to have a grand reunion at Pittsburgh. Such men can't easily forget the rebels that pursued them almost to the death, and clasp hands over the bloody chasm.

The Greeleycrats are very fond of boasting accessions to their party, and when they come to tell who the turncoats are they invariably prove to be office holders, or soreheads who have been disappointed in getting office, or expectants of official favors. Read and see.

For some time Mr Sumner appeared to be averse to committing himself to to the public as to which candidate he will support for president, but he at last, in consequence of hatred to Grant came out for Greeley in a long document. Mr. Blaine answers it very pointedly, which is on first page. But the answer by Mr. Garrison is a most effectual response to Sumner. It deals in historical facts, and with these facts there is an iron logic which no sophistry can break. The colored people respect Mr. Sumner; but they can't vote for Greeley because he tells them to do so.

Bro. Spencer, of Cleveland, has been nominated for congress by the prohibitionists of the 20th district. He is worthy and well qualified for the office, and Cuyahoga county would do honor to itself in electing him.

An attempt was made to burn the city of Steubenville on the night of the 9th inst, several stables being fired simultaneously, but fortunately the firemen succeeded in stopping the destroyer before it did much damage. Evidently the work of incendiaries.

On the 9th inst, at Buffalo, some 15,000 people were in attendance at a horse race. Two of the horses fell down dead on the track, one from the bursting of a blod vessel, and the other from heart disease. Is n't it rather hard to be running horses when the murcury is up among the nineties?

The impression is very prevalent that, if the presidential election had taken place, when noise and clamor amounted to anything, that Greeley might have been elected; but as the sober second thought of the people is taking place of the noise and confusion, Gen. Grant is increasing in strength, and as Greeley has said of him, he can't be beat.

Charles O'Connor, a leading New York democrat, not a Greeleyerat, is talked of as the straightout candidate for president at the Louisville convention.

In 1870 North Carolina legislature had a democratic majority on joint ballot of 62, all the state officers, and 5 out of 7 congressmen. In 1872 the republicans have all the state officers but lieut governor, 3 out of 8 congressmen, and dem. majority in the legislature is 18—wittled down considerably.

Joe Geiger's last speech is excellent Greeleycrat reading. Joe don't eat crow.

Transient newspapers, circulars samples and such that have been two cents are again reduced to one cent, which is good.

In 1868 North Carolina was democratic by a majority of 4221—in 1870 by nearly twice that—in 1872, a majority the other way of nearly 2,000.

Among the democracy bro McKee was a big man, whole souled fellow, a leader, a bully boy. But now that he goes for Grant,—oh, he's nobody, anyhow, nothing worth—never amounted to anything. But Greeley is the big toad in the puddle just now, and Sumner is placed among the gods of the Greeleyerats.

At Carrolton the Gleeleycrats have decided to have roast ox after the November election. That will certainly be more palatable than crow, which they must eat till that time.

The Northern Ohio Fair will be held at Cleveland September 10, 11, 12, 13 and 14th. $30,000 to be awarded in premiums.

Dr. McCollough of this city has been appointed on an important committee at the state fair.

Gen. Burnside, in his New York speech, photographed Greeley to nature, when he said: "I believe Mr. Greeley is a halting, hesitating and unsafe man. I would not disparage him personally for one moment. He may be as honest as any man upon the face of the earth, but he is halting and hesitating in the hour of emergency. Do the American people want such a man as he for president? He has no firmness, no stability, and is easily frightened or persuaded into anything. If the 'King of the Cannibal Islands' was to declare war against Uncle Sam, and Greeley was president, the old gentleman would quake with trepidation and be ready to make peace at any price, although he would not put himself in the jaws of the old man eater as he placed himself at the command of the rebel agents in Canada."

Chicago, Aug 12.—A Sioux city dispatch says: About sixty Indian chiefs and representative men from different tribes on the Upper Missouri, under the charge of the Assistant-secretary of the interior, Cowan, and commissioner Brunot, will arrive here about the 20th inst, on their way to Washington. Sitting Bull and Unkapapa chiefs, who have been on the war path in western Dakotah and eastern Montana for two years, form one party. These men represent all the tribes who have shown hostility to the building of the Northern Pacific Railroad, and it is hoped that this trip to Washington will pacify them, so that hostilities may be avoided.

A coal panic is imminent in England, confounding the calculations of householders. The increase of iron manufacturing uses up the coal in the furnaces and foundries faster than the mines can produce it. So great is the demand that even the more expensive descriptions are being eagerly bought at enhanced cost by the iron manufacturing corporations. The steamers plying on the Thames have doubled their rates of fares to cover the increased cost of fuel, and the passengers are grumbling at the change.

The managers of the Santa Clara (Cal.) Agricultural Society have an eye to business when they advertise a premium of forty dollars to the damsel who "prepares the best plain dinner at a cost not to exceed four dollars." The idea is a good one, and can hardly fail to produce good results. Many a maiden will try her skill in the kitchen in hopes of carrying off the forty dollars with the accompanying honors.

COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS.

Wednesday Evn'g, Aug. 7th, 1872.

The council met in regular session and was called to order by the president Members present—Messrs. Willenborg, Folger, Oberlin, Altekruse, Gise, Kirkland and Warwick.

Minutes of two last meetings read and approved.

Mr Gise, from the committee on gas, submitted the following report:

To the city council of the city of Massillon,

Mr President and gentlemen:—

The undersigned, from the committee on gas, to whom was referred the petition of Guy E Grosse and others, in reference to the erection of a gas post and lamp on Clay street, respectfully beg leave to report in favor of granting the prayer of the petitioners; the city only to furnish the necessary fixtures according to its contract with the gas company and all other regulations. We would also recommend a gas lamp post and lamp be erected at Ed Richardson's corner.

L GISE, Ch'n Gas Com.

The foregoing report was on motion of Mr Kirkland, adopted.

Mr Warwick, from the committee on streets and alleys submitted the following report:

To the Honorable, the city council of the city of Massillon. Mr President and gentlemen:—

The undersigned, from the committee on streets and alleys, to whom was referred the petition of Rev P I Buehl and others, in reference to improvements on Mill st, beg leave to report that, having had the same under consideration they are of the opinion that the grade at which said street now is, where the improvements contemplated by the petitioners is sought to be made, is as nearly correct as the necessities of the street and neighborhood require. Your committee can see no reason for changing the grade of said street at any point. They, therefore, recommend the passage of an ordinance requiring all property holders on both sides of said Mill street, from its intersection with North st, to its intersection with Cherry st, to gutter the same at all points where gutters have not already been made. They recommend that said ordinance should provide for the paving of said gutters with good boulders, not less than nine feet between the extreme edges, and sixteen inches in depth below the crown of the street, with this improvement to be made by the property holders on each side of said street where the same is not already paved, your committee are of the opinion that the public necessities will be fully subserved; all of which is respectfully submitted J G WARWICK,

Ch'n Com on Streets and Alleys.

Mr Folger moved that the foregoing report be adopted, and that the property holders on Mill street be ordered to pave according to the established grade.—motion prevailed.

On motion of Mr Folger the ordinance to establish the grade on South street was taken up and put upon its second reading; and on motion of Mr Kirkland the rules were suspended, and the ordinance was put upon its third reading, and was passed by the following vote Yeas—Altekruse, Folger, Gise, Kirkland, Oberlin, Warwick and Willenborg. Nays—none.

The street commissioners report for the five weeks ending August 3d, was read as follows: Amount of work done on streets and alleys, $324,50; poll tax received, $88,45.

Mr Gise offered the following resolution which was adopted:

Resolved, That the committee on streets and alleys be instructed to take immediate steps to so improve that part of —— st near the residence of Henry Lance, so that the same shall be rendered passable.

On motion the matter in reference to the claim of Joe Bahney was postponed for one week.

Mr Oberlin offered the following which was adopted:

Resolved, That the committee on streets and alleys be instructed to view that portion of Akron st, south of Anson Pease's residence, and all other streets, and report the condition of the same at the next meeting of the council.

On motion of Mr Warwick it was ordered, that the standing committee on the judiciary be instructed to report what measures should be taken consistent with the ordinance and laws now in force to improve the sidewalks on Main st

A petition from Joe Bahney and 19 others was presented, asking for a hose reel house to be built on the west side of the canal.

On motion of Mr. Oberlin the matter was referred to a select committee. The chair appointed Messrs Oberlin, Warwick and Altekruse, as said committee.

Mr Folger moved that the city solicitor be instructed to draw an ordinance to establish a grade on Main st, the summit to be at the intersection of Center and Main streets, according to the last survey,—Motion carried.

The following amounts were allowed and orders drawn for the same

Taylor Clay & Co., hauling lumber for hospital,	$ 3 00
A F Beach, surveying South st,	11 00
Massillon Gas Co, gas and repairs,	143 96

On motion the council adjourned.

Will arive at the

AMERICAN HOUSE,

MASSILLON, O.

On Wednesday, August 21st,

WILL REMAIN FOUR DAYS,

Where he can be consulted on.

Diseases of the Kidneys

AND

Diseases of the Bladder

Such as Stricture, Weakness and General Debility.

Has discovered the most certain, speedy and only effectual remedy in the world for weakness in the back or limbs, strictures, affections of the kidneys or bladder, involuntary emissions, impotency, general debility, nervousness, dyspepsia, languor, low spirits, confusion of ideas, palpitation of the heart, timidity, trembling, dimness of sight or giddiness, disease of the head, throat or skin, affections of the lungs, liver, stomach, or bowels, those terrible disorders arising from solitary habits of youth—secret and solitary practices, more fatal to victims than the song of the syrens to the mariners of Ulysses, blighting their most brilliant hopes and anticipations, rendering marriage, &c., impossible.

especially, who have become the victims of solitary vice, that dreadful and destructive habit which annually sweeps to an untimely grave thousands of young men of the most exalted talents and brilliant intellect, who might otherwise have entranced listening senates with the thunderings of eloquence, or waked to ecstacy the living lyre, may call with full confidence.

MARRIAGE.

Married persons, or young men and ladies contemplating marriage, being aware of physical weakness, organic debility, deformities, especially cured. He who places himself under the care of Dr Fishblatt, may religiously confide in his honor as a gentleman, and confidently rely on his skill as a physician.

ORGANIC WEAKNESS

Immediately cured, and full vigor restored. Distressing affliction, which renders life miserable and marriage impossible, is the penalty paid by the victims of improper indulgence. Young persons are too apt to commit excesses from not being aware of the dreadful consequences that may ensue. Now who that understands the subject will pretend to deny that the power of procreation is sooner lost by those falling into improper habits than by the prudent? Beside being deprived of the pleasure of healthy off pring the most serious and destructive symptems of both body and mind arise. The system becomes deranged, the physical and mental functions weakened, loss of procreative power, nervous irritability, dyspepsia, palpitation of the heart, indigestion, constitutional debility, and wasting of the frame, cough, consumption, decay and early death.

Dr Fishblat graduated from one of the most eminent colleges in the United States; has effected some of the most astonishing cures that were ever known; many trembled with ringing in the head and ears when asleep, great nervousness, being alarmed at sudden sounds, bashfulness with derangement of mind, were cured immediately.

TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE.

Dr Fishblatt addresses all those who have injured themselves by improper indulgencies and solitary habits, which ruin both body and mind unfitting them for either business, study, society or marriage.

These are some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, viz: Weakness of the back and limbs, pain in the breast, dimness of sight, loss of muscular power, palpitation of the heart, dyspepsia, nervous irritability, symptoms of consumption, derangement of the digestive functions, &c

MENTALLY.—The effects on the mind are much to be dreaded. Loss of memory, confusion of ideas, depression of spirits, evil foreboding, aversion to society, self distrust, love of solitude, timidity, &c., are some of the evils produced

Thousands of persons of all ages can now judge what is the cause of their declining health, losing their vigor, becoming weak, pale, nervous and emaciated, having a singular appearance about the eyes, cough and symptoms of consumption.

YOUNG MEN

Who have injured themselves by a certain practice, indulged when alone, a habit frequently learned from evil companions or at school, the effects of which are nightly felt, even when asleep, and if not cured, renders marriage impossible, and destroys both body and mind, should apply immediately.

What a pity that a young man the hope of the country, the pride of his parents, should be snatched from all prospects and enjoyments of life by the consequences of deviating from the path of nature, and indulging in a certain secret habit. Such persons must before contemplating

Reflect, that a sound body and mind are the most necessary requisites to promote connubial happiness. Indeed without these the journey through life becomes a weary pilgrimage; the prospects hourly darken to the view, the mind becomes shadowed with despair, and filled with the melancholy reflection that the happiness of another is blighted with our own.

A Perilous Season.

Glorious and delightful as the summer weather is, its tropical heat is a severe trial to the vital powers. Even the strongest are sometimes prostrated by its effects. The common phrase applied to this condition of the body is general debility. Now, general debility arises from, and includes a variety of ailments. The liver is more or less affected, the bowels are either constipated or too much relaxed, the stomach but half performs the work of digestion, the appetite is poor, and the spirits depressed. This is what is called general debility. It is a general disarrangement of all the physical functions, and requires as a remedy a medicine that will regulate them all. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is specially adapted to this purpose. Its general peration is not confined to a single organ. If the liver is affected, it restores its tone. If the stomach is torpid, it regenerates it. If the nerves are tremulous and weak, it braces and reinforces them. If the mind, which ever sympathises with the body, is gloomy and despondent, it relieves the difficulty, and soon brings the whole mechanism of the body into harmony with the laws of health.

There is no civilized nation in the Western Hemisphere in which the utility of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters as a tonic, corrective, and antibilious medicine, is not known and appreciated. Throughout the tropics it is considered, both by the people and the profession, the standard specific. While it is a medicine for all seasons and all climates, it is especially suited to the complaints generated by the weather, being the purest and best vegetable stimulant in the world.

Beware of the Bitters made of acid and dangerous materials, which unscrupulous parties are endeavoring to foist upon the the people. Their name is legion, and the public has no guarantee that they are not poisonous. Adhere to the tried remedy, Hostetter's Bitters, sold only in glass, and never in kegs or barrels.

WOMAN.

By an immense practice, extending through a period of many years, having within that time treated over nine thousand cases of those diseases peculiar to woman, I have been enabled to perfect a most potent and agreeable medicine that meets the indications presented by that class of diseases with positive certainty and exactness.

To designate this natural specific compound, I have named it

The term, however, is but a feeble expression of my most matured appreciation of its value, based upon actual and witnessed results. As a close observer, I have while witnessing its positive results in the few special diseases incident to the separate organism of woman, singled it out as the climax or crowning gem of my medical career. On its merits as a positive, safe, and effectual remedy for this class of diseases, and one that will at all times and under all circumstances act kindly and in harmony with the laws which govern the female system, I am willing to stake my reputation as a physician. May, even more, so confident am I that it will not disappoint the most sanguine expectations of a single invalid lady who employs it for any of the ailments for which I recommend it, that I offer and sell it under A POSITIVE GUARANTEE. If a beneficial effect is not experienced by the time two-thirds of the contents of the bottle are used, I will, on the return of the bottle, two-thirds of the medicine having been taken according to directions, and the case being one for which I recommend it, promptly refund the money paid for it. Had I not the most perfect confidence in its virtues, I could not offer it as I do under these conditions; but having witnessed its truly miraculous cures in thousands of cases, I feel warranted and perfectly safe in risking both my reputation and my money on its merits.

The following are among those diseases in which my Favorite Prescription has worked cures—as if by magic and with a certainty never before attained by any medicine; Leucorrhœa, Excessive Flowing, Painful Monthly Periods, Suppressions when from unnatural causes, Irregularities, Weak Back, Prolapsus, or falling of the Uterus, Anteversion and Retroversion, Bearing Down Sensations, Internal Heat, Nervous Depression, Debility, Despondency, Threatened Miscarriage, Chronic Congestion, Inflammation and Ulceration of the Uterus, and very many other chronic diseases peculiar to woman not mentioned here, in which, as well as in the cases which I have mentioned, my Favorite Prescription works cures to the marvel of the world. This medicine I do not extol as a cure-all, but it admirably fulfills a singleness of purpose, being a most perfect specific in all chronic diseases of the sexual system of woman. It will not disappoint, nor will it do harm in any state or condition. It is a MOST POWERFUL RESTORATIVE TONIC to the general as well as the sexual system, also combining the most valuable nervine properties. Both the muscular and nervous forces are strengthened and built up by its use. It will be found invaluable in diseases incident to pregnancy, and can be taken in moderate doses with perfect safety while in that state. Indeed, it is a Mother's Cordial, and so prepares the system for parturition that it renders child-labor easy. I have received the heartfelt praise from hundreds of mothers for the inestimable benefits thus conferred.

I offer my Favorite Prescription to the Ladies of America with the sincerity of an honest heart, and for their best welfare. Those who desire further information on these subjects can obtain it in my TREATISE ON CHRONIC DISEASES OF THE GENERATIVE AND URINARY ORGANS; sent free from observation upon receipt of two postage stamps. It treats minutely on those diseases peculiar to Females, and gives much valuable advice in regard to their management.

A very industrious and useful man is the stencil cutter, who has closely followed his vocation on our streets for some two weeks. If we had a few more such men as Taylor Clay our city soon would be filled up with houses, as he has already put up some half dozen this season, and we can't tell how many more will be erected by him before the end of the year. A grand exhibition of auroral lights attracted general attention, as we observe by the papers, on the evening the 3d inst. It is described as a scene of unusual brilliancy and magnificence. A like exhibition was also displayed on Thursday evening last, which was the object of general wonderment throughout this part of the country. In both cases the phenomena extended to the zenith, perhaps beyond at intervals, and covered the northern horizon from east to west. Sometimes these signs forebode storms.

The people in different parts of town are considerably annoyed by the accumulations of water which often do much damage either in washing away earth or piling it on in unwanted quantities. The council, in consequence, have to put up with a liberal share of scolding, and in some cases may be threatened will a resort to legal remedies. If possible it is better to settle such troubles amicably.

D W Huntsman, now of Allegheny City, Pa, formerly an active citizen of this place, made us a brief visit on Saturday. Unfortunately he had a very severe attack of sickness some weeks ago, from which he is not yet fully recovered, but seams in a fair way to regain his wonted activity and energy. Business, he reports, is good, and the firm is prospering, as they carry on as large a furniture trade as is to be met with anywhere in this part of the country.

Capt. D. A. Geiger, president of the Alliance Driving Park Association, has sent us the programme of performances which are to take place there on the 18th, 19th and 20th of September. A grogseller in a villiage in the eastern part of Stark county lately told one of our citizens that he had determined to quit the business, as, he said, he was now as far in hell as he wanted to be. He wishes to sell out his stock and go into what he calls a respectable business, that is farming. So according to his idea liquor selling is not respectable We rejoice that the man has decided on taking such a course.

A gentleman of this place who travels by land through the country on business states that in portions of Holmes and Coshocton counties the late immense rains have so torn up the roads in many places that they are nearly or quite impassable. In one village a grogseller was visited by a flood of water pouring into his cellar and spoiling all his liquors. That was a cold water performance sent from heaven. Another grogseller had a shot from heaven in the shape of lightning, which makes him think he is not in heaven.

As far as we can ascertain harvest in this region is pretty much over, excepting that there may be some oats out yet. What was generally gathered in good condition, and now farmers are about to separate the grain from the chaff and straw. Many years ago our older readers can remember it was a winter's job for a man to thrash out a mow full of wheat and other grain with two sticks tied together and called a flail. In those days Irishmen were good thrashers, and often one of them would put in a winter in this exercise, thrashing from twelve to twenty dozens of sheaves in a day. What then required several weeks' labor is now performed by machinery in a few hours.

Mr. Brown, the Greeleyerat candidate for congress, was here the other day, looking up his friends We have a favorable opinion of Mr. B., but the new political company in which he now trains must be rather awkward. Being regularly nominated by the prohibitionists, and holding the position of chairman of the state prohibition executive committee, and now this new measure of responsibility being heaped upon him, it must be rather embarrassing to Mr. B. Some of our friends charge him with having $25,000 to spare to buy his way to congress, but we think this is guess work. Although we have much respect for Mr Brown we expect to support Mr Woodworth for congress They are both known as earnest and working temperance men.

Is it true that two respectable young ladies, members of church, had, on a recent Sunday morning, between four and five o'clock, to go to a well known gambling saloon and take their father from the den, who was in a state of intoxication, and had spent perhaps all his money? A witness testifies that it is literally true. Now here is a case which we hope somebody will work up. A man who is in the habit of drinking to excess, who was at the saloon so long after nine o'clock that it was next morning, and Sunday morning at that, is an aggravated case. If our state and municipal laws are thus to be trifled with they are worthless. There are plenty of lawyers who would like no better amusement than to go for such transgressors. Let whoever is afflicted by such outrages set our officials at work.

About the 21 of August, when the first report from North Carolina came to us the Greeleyera's were quite exultant over the news. Some of them were very inquisitive, and could not pass republicans without imparting the information that the state had gone for Greeley by 10,000 to 12,000 majority, electing the entire state ticket, nearly all the legislature, and seven out of eight congressmen—which of course laid out Grant and his friends, and elected—Greeley beyond any doubt. Republicans received the news with meekness, as if they were not disappointed, and let their opposers crow to their hearts' content. Well, they (dems.) crowed so far as words could do it. But the passing days brought additional news, and every despatch lessened the flattering Greeleverat news. So that on Thursday evening Young America could be restrained no longer—older ones were less ardent, but did not care if the show did go on. A great altar of boxes and barrels was raised on the crossing of Main and Erie streets to which fire was applied, and soon the towering flames were ascending skyward in the quiet calm of the evening. Hundreds of people surrounded the bonfire, most of whom seemed to enjoy the show, as it indicated that more light had come from the tar and turpentine state—to the effect that it had gone republican. The boys enjoyed the fun hugely; and in the mean time they procured powder and set the juvenile cannon to shouting victory in its loud, monosyllabic style, so that the entire vicinity saw the light and heard the shout of exultation. Hundreds of people gathered at the center of attraction, so that there was a good opening for speeches. Mr. Porter being called upon responded briefly, who was succeeded by Anson Tease, Esq., who spoke for some 20 or 30 minutes in a spirit of candor and hopefulness.

For a medium of vigorous thought, expressed in elegant and forcible language, with a feeling of independence seldom paralleled, read the Golden Age. We know that among a certain class, who as a rule, are of the fogy order, are wonderfully down on Mr Tilton, the editor of the Age, but this does not detract from the force and outspoken character of his paper among minds not afraid of new ideas—not averse to discussing any and every subject which should be an object of criticism by the human mind. It is true that just now Mr Tilton is an ardent Greeley man, and works earnestly in that interest—and if it looks right to him who can question his perogative in this respect? We don't see at all as he does politically, yet find much, very much to admire in his ably conducted paper, and hope it may continue to prosper as it richly deserves.

Among the vast number of useful, elevating and inspiriting publications that are constantly emanating from the office of the Banner of Light, Boston, the principal exponent of the spiritual philosophy in this country is the Spiritual Harp. It is the joint production of J. M. Peebles and J. O. Barrett, assisted by E. H. Bailey, musical editor; and although it has been before the American people more than four years, is as attractive as if entirely new. Hundreds of charming poems, all full of the spirit of progress grace its ample pages, accompianed with the choicest music—generally easy of performance, and consisting of agreeable melodies which tend to enlarge the heart and elevate the aspirations of the soul. In all its pages we find none of those gloomy selections, with sentiments like this—'Plunged in a gulf of dark despair,' and many of a similar nature to be found in orthodox hymnal collections, but on the contrary a spirit of hopefulness and happiness are the inspiring and leading features of every emanation of the poet which so gracefully embellish the entire work.

THE RAIN STORM.—Between three and four o'clock Monday evening last this place was visited by the greatest rain and thunder storm of the season. It continued almost incessantly to pour down in torrents for near two hours, so that floods of water ran along the streets, and in many places covering them entirely. A great number of cellars were more or less filled with water, resulting in considerable loss of property. In some places the streets were badly washed—the water plowed deep, leaving dangerous and almost impassable gullies, which will need prompt attention. An immense quantity of debris was washed into the canal, perhaps sufficient to impede navigation to some extent, and we are informed that damage has also befallen the canal banks by being broken over with water at some points. The race which supplies the Union Mills is reported to have been damaged. During the fall of rain a heavily charged thunder cloud passed over the city, from the northwest to the southeast, and in its passage vivid and brilliant flashes of white lightning, accompanied with sharp, quick, loud thunder, indicating that heavy explosions either took place in the clouds, or some terrestrial objects were visited by those keen flashes. After the storm it was reported that the sash factory of Mong & Crawford was struck by lightning, also a frame building on or near the corner of Mill and North streets, belonging to Mrs Folwell, and the east end of the depot. No serious damage was sustained in either case, though at the depot several persons were slightly stunned. Perhaps a few shingles were knocked off and some bricks thrown from chimnies was the extent of injury to the buildings. These three flashes occurred within the space of not more than one or two minutes. For many reasons the storm was one which will be long remembered, especially for its duration and violence. For some hours before the air was intensely hot, and the mercury rose to 90 degrees. This is as far as we have been able to report Monday evening.

A tree was struck by lightning near the residence of Andrew Whistler, but no other damage was done. At another place on Mill street fire was seen to pass over or around a stove, supposed to be a flash of lightning, but no noise was heard, and nothing disturbed. It is thought by some that the railroad has sustained some damage by the rain, but up to Tuesday morning we have no report to that effect. The trains are running as usual. According to Dr. Watson's record rain fell to the depth of three and six-tenths inches. But little rain fell south of the cemetery, and it was light at Canton. The storm seemed to concentrate here.

The American Ed Monthly for August gives a very interesting sketch of that marvelous man, Cardinal Mazzafanti, an Italian, who was master of fifty six languages Much other useful reading is in the same number. J W Schermerhorn & Co. N Y.

It is a mark of the unsuccessful man, that he invariably locks his stable door when the horse has been stolen. This sort of wisdom never thinks about bodily health until it is gone. But just as much as any disease has become seated, the power of the system to resist and throw it off is weakened; hence time is all important. For dyspepsia, all diseases of the liver, stomach, skin and kidneys, and all that begin in vitiated blood, do not wait until the trouble is confirmed, but attack it by a timely use of Dr. Walker's California Vinegar Bitters. 479 4w

THE NEW FAMILY
SINGER SEWING MACHINE

The undersigned has opened rooms for the sale of this celebrated Sewing Machine, three doors north from McLain, Dangler & Co's store, Erie street, Massillon, O., where he intends to keep on hand a full assortment of Sewing Machines, needles, attachments, and findings for all machines. Silks and threads of best quality.

This NEW FAMILY MACHINE is capable of range and variety of work such as was thought impossible to perform by machinery. We claim and can show that it is the cheapest, most beautiful, delicately arranged, nicely adjusted, easily operated, and smoothly running of all family sewing machines. It is remarkable not only for the range and variety of its sewing, but also for the variety and different kinds of texture which it will sew with equal facility and perfection, using silk twist, linen or cotton thread, fine or coarse, making the interlocked elastic-stitch, alike on both sides of the fabric sewn. Thus, beaver cloth, or leather, may be sewn with great strength and uniformity of stitch; and, in a moment, this willing and never wearying instrument may be adjusted for fine work on gauze or gossamer tissue, or the tucking of tarlatan, or ruffling, or almost any other work which delicate fingers have been known to perform.

Purchasers wishing to buy a machine are requsted to call and examine our prices &c, before purchasing elsewhere.

136 Mulberry street, Newark, N. J.,

Is now treating successfully CONSUMPTION, BRONCHITIS, and all diseases of the Throat and Lungs, with his Compound Medicated Inhalations, Concentrated Food and Cough Syrup.

During the past ten years Dr. Carpenter has treated and cured thousands of cases of the above named diseases, and has now in his possession certificates of cures from every part of the country. The inhalation is breathed directly into the lungs, soothing and healing over all inflamed surfaces, entering into the blood, it imparts vitality as it permeates to every part of the system. The sensation is not unpleasant, and the first inhalation often gives very decided relief, particularly when there is much difficulty of breathing. Under the influence of my remedies, the cough soon grows easier, the night sweats cease, the hectic flush vanishes, and with improving digestion the patient rapidly gains strength, and health is again within his grasp.

The concentrated food rapidly builds up the most debilitated patient, presenting to the stomach food all ready to be assimilated and made into good, rich, healthy blood

The cough syrup is to be taken at night to alleviate the cough and enable the patient to obtain sleep. Full directions accompany each box of my remedies, which consists of One Inhaler, one bottle of Alterative Inhalant, one bottle of Soothing Febrifuge Inhalant, one bottle of Anti-Hœmorragic Inhalant, one bottle of Concentrated Food, and one bottle Cough Syrup.

Price of box containing remedies to last one month, $10; two months 18 three months 25.

Sent to any address C O D. Pamphlets containing large list of patients cured sent free. Letters of inquiry must contain one dollar to insure answer. Address,

A H CARPENTER, Newark, N J.

Dr Carpenter's Catarrh Remedy will give immediate relief, and will effect a permanent cure in from one to three months. Price of remedy to last one month $5; two months, 8; three months, 10.

Charity is an eternal debt, and without limit.

A California hotel consists of the hollow trunks of ten immense trees, standing in a group a few feet apart. Nine of the hollow trees, duly papered and whitewashed are used as bedrooms and the tenth as an office and bar room.

An advertising tallow chandler modestly announces that, without intending any disparagment to the sun, he may confidently assert that his octagonal spermaceti is the best light ever invented.

Here is a small typographical error: "A tall, fine looking Chinese thief, dressed in black clothes, wearing slippers and high white stockings slightly pock marked is operating in Sacramento."

The funny fellow of an exchange says that a friend, who worketh like an adder, estimates that not less than 8,000,025,009,000.073 flies will lose their lives by falling into molasses and things this summer.

Brick dust obtained by rubbing two small bricks together, is the best remedy for lice on stock, says a correspondent of an agricultural paper, that he ever tried. Sift the dust evenly over the animal, and work it well into and among the hairs.

A Fort Wayne man who has inventee a new recipe for cleaning clothes paraded it on his a lvertisements under the standing head 'Every man his own washwomen!'

An Irish paper publishes the following: 'A deaf man named Taff was run down and killed by a passenger train on Wednesday morning. He was injured in a similar way about a year ago.'

The engineers appointed to make a survey of Nicaragua for the purpose of finding a route for a ship canal through that country, after several months devoted to explorations, have returned and report the construction of such canal impracticable. This is sad news for the friends of that project.

A California farmer recently scattered some wheat soaked in whisky over a field frequented by wild geese. The silly fowls gorged themselves with the seductive banquet, and got so tight they could not fly, when the farmer stepped in and dispatched six hundred of them with a club. Other silly geese are also sometimes dispatched by means of a conjunction of whisky and cluds.

HABIT.—The most degraded and wretched of human beings is he who practiced a vice so long that he curses it while he clings to it; who pursues because he feels a great law of his nature driving him on toward it but reaching it, knows that it will gnaw his heart and make him roll himself in the dust with anguish.

"The enterprising local of the Greenup (Ky.) Independent, comes out on hogs as follows: Some time since our dads, by virtue of the authority in them vested, ordered the hogs to abstain from the use of the streets of this incorporated village, and such was the dread the hogs had of the law's stern decree, that four days thereafter the closest observer could not have counted over three hundred perambulating the streets at any time.

Bronchial Consumption.—This is a form of consumption usually of easy remedy by means of Dr Keyser's Lung Cure, which, whilst it eliminates the mucous and phlegm from the throat, heals the membrane and allays that morbid irritability which produces such harrassing coughing, and when the disease involves the larynx, hoarseness and pain in the throat. Reader, if you value your health and life do not allow such a condition to go on until it has attacked the lungs, when it will not be easily cured. Begin in time. Then a few bottles of Dr Keyser's Lung Cure will eradicate the disease—if neglected it will take more than a dozen.

There is hardly a form of lung disease which Dr Keyser's Lung cure will not cure, if used in time. It not only heals the lungs, but it puts the constitution in a healthy condition, and enables it to resist disease. Sold at the doctor's great medicine store, 167 Liberty street, $1.50 per bottle, or 4 for $5.

The Human Roof and its Thatching.—If the man deserves well of his country who makes two blades of grass grow where only one grew before, surely he who produces a glorious crop of hair on a comparatively barren scalp deserves the hearty thanks of the obliged party. All honor therefore to Prof E T Lyon, for, unquestionably his renowned Kathairon accomplishes this object. Gentlemen, those whiskers are shy of making their appearance in force, or the fibers of whose moustache disclose those magnificent distances for which Washington city was once so famous, will find this hair restorer, the most wonderful encourager of fibrous development that has ever yet been invented. Both sexes are advised to use it, as by all odds, it is the best article for improving the growth and beauty of the hair, keeping it free from scurf and dandruff preventing it from becoming harsh, dry and gray—giving it a rich gloss and endowing it with flexibility—that toilet chemistry has ever evolved from the vegetable kingdom.

When applied with Dr. Pierce's Nasal Douche and accompanied with Dr Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery as constitutional treatment Dr Sage's Catarrh remedy produces perfect cures of the worst cases of catarrh and ozoma of many years standing. This thorough course of medication constitutes the only scientific, rational, safe and successful manner of treating this odious disease that has ever been offered to the afflicted. The instrument and two medicines sold for $2 by all druggists.

Success is the best test of superiority; the wonderful demand for Simmon's Liver Regulator is one of the convincing proofs that this article is appreciated above everything else of the kind. However much its jealous defamers may throw their shafts, truth will prevail and so will this medicine.

JURUBEBA

BLOOD PURIFIER

It is not a physic which may give temporary relief to the sufferer for the first few doses, but which from continued use brings piles and kindred diseases to aid in weakening the invalid, nor is it a doctored liquor, which, under the popular name of bitters is so extensively palmed off on the public as sovereign remedies, but is a most powerful tonic and alterative, pronounced so by the leading medical authorities of London and Paris, and has been long used by the regular physicians of other countries with wonderful remedial results.

Dr Wells' Extract of Jurubeba retains all the medicinal virtues peculiar to the plant and must be taken as a permanent curative agent.

Is there want of action in your liver and spleen? Unless relieved at once, the blood becomes impure by deleterious secretions, producing scrofulous or skin diseases, felons, blotches, pustules, canker, &c.

Take Jurubeba to cleanse, purify and restore the vitiated blood to healthy action.

Have you a dyspeptic stomach? Unless digestion is promptly aided the system in debilitated with loss of vital force, poverty of the blood, dropsical tendency, general weakness or lassitude.

Have you weakness of the intestines? You are in danger of chronic diarrhœa or the dreadful inflammation of the bowels.

Take it to allay irritation and ward off tendency to inflammations

Have you weakness of the Uterine or urinary organs? You must procure instantly relief or you are liable to suffering worse than death.

Take it to strengthen organic weakness or life becomes a burden.

Finally it should be frequently taken to keep the system in perfect health or you are otherwise in great danger of malarial, miasmatic or contagious diseases.

FOUTZ'S

CELEBRATED

Horse and Cattle Powders.

This preparation, long and favorably known, will thoroughly re-invigorate broken down and low-spirited horses, by strengthening and cleansing the stomach and intestines.

It is a sure preventive of all diseases incident to this animal, such as LUNG FEVER, GLANDERS, YELLOW WATER, HEAVES, COUGHS, DISTEMPER, FEVERS, FOUNDER, LOSS OF APPETITE AND VITAL ENERGY, &c. Its use improves the wind, increases the appetite—gives a smooth and glossy skin—and transforms the miserable skeleton into a fine-looking and spirited horse.

To keepers of Cows this preparation is invaluable. It is a sure preventive against Binderpest, Hollow Horn, etc. It has been proven by actual experiment to increase the quantity of milk and cream twenty per cent. and make the butter firm and sweet. In fattening cattle, it gives them an appetite, loosens their hide, and makes them thrive much faster.

In all diseases of Swine, such as Coughs, Ulcers in the Lungs, Liver, &c., this article acts as a specific. By putting from one-half a paper to a paper in a barrel of swill the above diseases will be eradicated or entirely prevented. If given in time, a certain preventive and cure for the Hog Cholera.

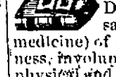
MANHOOD:

How Lost How Restored.



Just published, a new edition of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay on the radical cure (without medicine) of spematorrhœa, or seminal weakness, involuntary seminal losses, impotency physical and mental incapacity, impediments to marriage, etc.; also consumption, epilepsy and fits, induced by self indulgence or sexual extravagance.

Price in a sealed envelope, 6 cents.

The celebrated author, in this admirable essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain and effectual, by means of which every sufferer no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately and radically.

This lecture should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land.

Sent, under seal, in a plain envelope, to any address, postpaid, on receipt of six cents or two post stamps.

Also, Dr. Culverwell's Marriage Guide, Price 25 cents. Address the publishers,
